CAPRIGHT®

DELIVERING TRANSPARENCY

ONE PLATFORM. ONE STANDARD. ONE CAPRIGHT.

Capright was built to solve complex real estate and operational challenges through a combination of experienced professionals, integrated technology, and disciplined execution.

As an independent organization, we operate without the conflicts that often encumber other institutional platforms.

Our centralized platform, research capabilities, and scalable support infrastructure allow us to deliver consistent outcomes across a broad range of valuation, advisory, operational, and reporting functions.

Organizations throughout the US and Latin America rely on Capright for trusted expertise, responsive execution, and scalable support.

When accuracy, accountability, and execution matter, clients turn to Capright.

EXPERTISE, SUPPORT, AND EXECUTION BUILT AROUND CLIENT NEEDS.

VALUATION & REPORTING

Capright provides independent valuation and reporting services across all major commercial real estate asset types. Our professionals support financial reporting, acquisitions, dispositions, financing, tax matters, litigation, portfolio valuation, and regulatory compliance assignments.

Our team includes professionals with many of the industry's most respected credentials, including MAI, FRICS, MRICS, and CRE® designations.

ADVISORY & STRATEGIC SUPPORT

Capright helps clients navigate complex operational, financial, and reporting challenges through practical advisory solutions designed to improve decision making.

Our professionals work closely with owners, operators, lenders, investors, attorneys, and advisors across a wide range of third-party commercial real estate matters.

LITIGATION & DISPUTE SERVICES

Capright assists clients and legal counsel with valuation analysis, research, expert witness services, forensic support, and dispute-related consulting involving commercial real estate and complex financial matters.

Our professionals provide credible, well-supported analysis designed to withstand scrutiny in litigation, arbitration, and dispute resolution settings.

OPERATIONS & EXECUTION SUPPORT

Capright provides operational support and specialized expertise powered by experienced professionals, advanced technology, and disciplined processes. Our teams support a wide range of valuation, reporting, research, analytical, administrative, and operational functions designed to help clients improve efficiency, increase scalability, and reduce operational strain.

Unlike traditional outsourcing providers, Capright combines operational support with deep commercial real estate expertise and institutional quality execution standards.

Capright combines expertise, operational infrastructure, and responsive execution to help clients solve complex challenges.

ADVANTAGE

INDEPENDENCE & OBJECTIVITY

Capright operates as an independent third-party organization focused solely on serving the needs of our clients. Our work is objective, transparent, and free from the conflicts that can arise within firms that combine advisory services with ownership, lending, brokerage, or other principal business activities.

CENTRALIZED EXECUTION

Our centralized operating model creates consistency across assignments, teams, and markets while improving communication, quality control, and responsiveness.

OPERATIONAL INFRASTRUCTURE

Capright combines experienced professionals, integrated technology, and disciplined workflows to support critical valuation, reporting, analytical, and operational functions efficiently and at scale.

TECHNOLOGY & PROCESS INTEGRATION

We continuously invest in advanced technology and operational systems that improve efficiency, transparency, collaboration, and execution across our platform.

RESPONSIVE SUPPORT

Our structure allows us to remain highly responsive while supporting clients across a broad range of assignments, operational needs, and geographic regions.

INDUSTRY KNOWLEDGE & MARKET INSIGHT

Our professionals actively contribute to industry dialogue through market research, publications, media, and ongoing engagement throughout the CRE industry.

Capright helps organizations operate more efficiently, execute more consistently, and make decisions with greater confidence.
